

Loews Corporation Announces Quarterly Dividend on Carolina Group Stock

February 17, 2004

NEW YORK, February 17, 2004 – Loews Corporation (NYSE:LTR;CG) announced today the declaration of a quarterly dividend on its Carolina Group stock, in the amount of $0.455 per share, payable March 15, 2004 to shareholders of record as of March 1, 2004.

The Company also stated that concurrently with the declaration of the dividend on Carolina Group stock, approximately $33,815,000 has been applied from funds available in the Carolina Group to reduce the principal amount of the notional intercompany debt of Carolina Group to Loews Group, thereby bringing the principal amount of such debt to approximately $1,998,320,000.

The Carolina Group stock, commonly called a tracking stock, is intended to reflect the economic performance of a defined group of assets and liabilities of the Company, referred to as the Carolina Group. The principal asset attributed to the Carolina Group is the Company's stock in its wholly-owned subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. The Carolina Group is a notional group intended to reflect the performance of a defined set of assets and liabilities. The Carolina Group is not a separate legal entity.

SOURCE: Loews Corporation

Loews Corporation, New York
Candace Leeds
V.P. of Public Affairs
212-521-2416
or
Joshua E. Kahn
Investor Relations
212-521-2788