

Loews Corporation Announces Quarterly Dividend on Carolina Group Stock

November 15, 2005

NEW YORK, Nov 15, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Loews Corporation (NYSE:LTR;CG) announced today the declaration of a quarterly dividend on its Carolina Group stock, in the amount of $0.455 per share, payable December 12, 2005 to shareholders of record as of December 1, 2005.

The Company also stated that concurrently with the declaration of the dividend on Carolina Group stock, approximately $82,970,000 has been applied from funds available in the Carolina Group to reduce the principal amount of the notional intercompany debt of Carolina Group to Loews Group, thereby bringing the principal amount of such debt to approximately $1,626,869,000.

The Carolina Group stock, commonly called a tracking stock, is intended to reflect the economic performance of a defined group of assets and liabilities of the Company, referred to as the Carolina Group. The principal asset attributed to the Carolina Group is the Company's stock in its wholly-owned subsidiary Lorillard, Inc. The Carolina Group is a notional group intended to reflect the performance of a defined set of assets and liabilities. The Carolina Group is not a separate legal entity.
